

County Bank Opens Boulder Creek Branch

Supervisor Vincent Locatelli, representing Boulder Creek's IOOF, makes the first deposit in County Bank of Santa Cruz' new Boulder Creek branch while Bank President Richard P. Snyder, left, and Branch Manager Jack Rasmussen open the day's business behind the flower decked counter. At the branch bank's open house Saturday, more than 500 persons visited the building to meet bank personnel, inspect facilities and sample refreshments.

Fourth Generation Depositor

Harry Locatelli, son of Supervisor and Mrs. Vincent Locatelli deposits some of his savings in County Bank of Santa by to issue the youth his pass book. Locatelli represents the fourth generation of his family to become a County Bank depositor.
