

We commend both Grunsky and Murphy for their strong support of this legislation.

the San Lorenzo Valley, and of Bonny Doon which is one of the most beautiful

Glen Lapres
Ben Lomond

9-19-73

A look into the Valley's past

Selling war bonds

This publicity train was brought to Boulder Creek during a U.S. Bond drive in 1918 during World War I. The only known local person is Joseph Aram, the Boulder Creek station master, who is pictured second from the right. The other persons are thought to be dignitaries from Southern Pacific and perhaps the state or federal government. Photo courtesy of Susie Johnson.