

Crowd Gathers At Auditorium

The county board of supervisors sit on the stage at the civic auditorium Wednesday night prior to the opening of the hearing on whether the board has jurisdiction to act as a legislative body in opposing the Vietnam War. The photo was taken early in the evening and by the time the hearing was over, more than 2,000 persons had jammed into the auditorium, according to the city parks and recreation department. In photo at lower left, James Popin, president of the Pajaro Valley Unified School District board of trustees and a candidate for supervisor in the Second (Aptos) District, speaks in favor of the air war initiative. In photo at lower right, Santa Cruz City Councilman Goff also spoke in support of the initiative. Supervisors voted to support the initiative and to send Board Chairman Phil Harry to Washington, D. C., to personally deliver to President Nixon the board's resolution calling for an end to the war. Supervisors, from left, are Henry Mello, Dan Forbus, Harry, George Cress and Ralph Sanson. (Photos by Sentinel Photographer Bill Lovejoy).