

Historic Movie Theater in Santa Cruz

The Grand Theatre

The Grand Theatre, one of the first movie theaters in Santa Cruz, was on Pacific Avenue, across the street from Walnut. These photographs were probably taken around 1915. The posters in front of the theater advertise The Eternal City (1915), Marriage à la Carte (1915 & 1916), and a film featuring Eddie Plum and Lee Moran. Plum and Moran were together in film called, Mrs. Plum's Pudding in 1915.

Projection Room at the Grand Theatre, circa 1915

Source

Photographs are from the Koch collection in the History Archives, Museum of Art and History at the McPherson Center, Santa Cruz, California. Copyright the Museum of Art and History. Used with permission.

It is the library's intent to provide accurate information, however, it is not possible for the library to completely verify the accuracy of all information. If you believe that factual statements in a local history article are incorrect and can provide documentation, please contact the library.