

Tree 'n Sea Living

10/28/82
Sentinel

Director Charles DeWald and his cast of performers rehearse for Friday's "Celebration of Twilight".

Celebration of twilight brings poetry, songs

Merilla Lee sings a jazz number.

A celebration of the twilight of life with original poetry, songs and mime, stories of childhood experience and dramatic readings from Edgar Lee Masters' SPOON RIVER ANTHOLOGY and other sources will be presented by the Santa Cruz Senior Theatre on Friday at 1 p.m. in the Loudon Nelson Community Center.

Sponsored by the Santa Cruz City Parks and Recreation Department, the show features actors, singers and writers over the age of 60 from the Santa Cruz area.

Virginia Merrill will sing and read her poetry. Walter Johnson will sing. Norma Pentecost will tell stories from her childhood. Ina McPeak shares her Irish beginnings. Beau Rabb offers an evangelical message and Claire Christmann relates her experiences as a world traveler.

In all, there will be some 20 performers. The show is directed by Charles De Wald. Musical direction is by Peg Faigen and a photographic presentation by Tom Keaton complements each piece.

Admission is $1 Call 429-3663 for more information.

Ena McPeak relates a favorite poem.