

Cabrillo Music Festival

Entertain

10-18-90

✓ Cabrillo conductor

John Adams has been named composer-in-residence and principal guest conductor for the Cabrillo Music Festival's 1991 season, July 25-Aug. 4. Called by critics "one of the most frequently performed composers of his generation," Adams is best known for his opera "Nixon in China." He founded San Francisco's New and Unusual Music Series and is creative chair at the St. Paul Chamber Orchestra. He will plan the season with the Festival's music director Dennis Russell Davies, who will be on sabbatical in 1991.