

Civil Service

Thursday, March 7, 1968

Fifty-One City Employes Receive Pins At 10th Annual Awards' Dinner

Fifty-one Santa Cruz municipal employes were presented service pins Tuesday night during the 10th annual Santa Cruz Civil Service Commission awards dinner at the Elks Club.

Welcoming addresses were delivered by Mayor Samuel Leask and Denver Groff, civil service commission chairman.

City Manager Dave Koester acted as master of ceremonies.

Dinner entertainment and after-dinner dancing music was provided by a five-piece band.

Receiving five-year service pins were Jimmie Edwards and Richard Fairhurst of the water department; Bill Fieberling, Clyde King, Francis King, Kenneth Lazier and Robert Mello of the public works department.

Rex Giles and Howard Wetzel of the police department; James McAloon and Neal Walton of the planning department; Gunnar Hassel of the parks and recreation department; Larry Dykes of the fire department, and City Manager Koester.

Ten-year pins went to Gladys Lacazette and Douglas Sarmiento of the water department; Ronald Beliangero, Stephen Cox, Stanley Hawkins, John Reyes and Max Welch of the public works department; John Churchill, Richard Foerster, Matthew Gorman, Victor Hall, Robert Bunter and Muriel Wolfe of the police department; Betty Mumper of the parks and recreation department, and Robert Armstrong of the fire department.

Winning 15-year pins were Floyd Bradford, Robert Cummings and Jose Estrada of the water department; Richard Skotland of the public works department; Charles Scherer and Samuel Taylor of the police department and Theo Giggy of the library department.

Twenty-year pins went to Leon Rodriguez of the water department; Ernest Marenghi and Geno Pini of the police department; Joseph Allegri of the fire department and Dorothy Davis of finance and records.

A 30-year pin was awarded to Loren Scofield of the public works department.

Retirement pins were presented to James Hestand and Louis Lippi of the water department; Anastasia Foster and Jack Manns of the public works department; Betty Ray of the police department; Margaret Meng of the library department, and Lawrence Hayford, Edwin Neal and Herbert Wenks of the fire department.

PENNEYS