ABOVE: Shoppers view a variety of goods Sunday, from plants, organic coffee beans and fresh produce to artwork and jewelry on opening day of the new Seascaple Farmers' Market at Seascaple Village. Live music garnished the opening day that was kicked off with a ribbon-cutting ceremony by the Aptos Chamber of Commerce. The open-air market will now be open each Sunday from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the corner of Sumner Avenue at Seascaple Boulevard.
