

Temperature for 24-hour period ending at 8 a.m. today: Maximum 86, minimum 40.

Monterey Bay Area — Fair through Friday; cooler; small craft warnings for northwest wind 20 to 35 knots, decreasing tonight.

108th Year—No. 91

Second Class Postage Paid at Santa Cruz, California

Johnson

UCSC Campus

Dignitaries Share Spotlight; Public Invited To View Site

The public is invited to its first survey of the campus of the University of California at Santa Cruz tomorrow at 4:30 p.m. site dedication ceremonies.

The campus will be open to visitors beginning at 3:30 p.m. Main entrance is located on High street, just beyond the Bay street intersection. (See directional map on page 6).

High academic dignitaries will include University of California President Clark Kerr, while Governor Edmund G. Brown will head the political participants.

UCSC Chancellor Dean E. McHenry will preside at the ceremonies.

Kerr will present a bronze plaque commemorating the occasion to former Regent Gerald H. Hagar who will set it in place on a large boulder.

Invocation will be by the Rev. Herbert Schmidt, pastor of the Messiah Lutheran church and chairman of the University Religious Center committee. Music will be furnished by the Straw Hat band from the Berkeley campus.

During recent months work has been centered on construction of access roads, the natural science unit and central services building, and the rehabilitation of some existing old ranch buildings

College 3 Gets Tentative Okay From Regents

Conditional approval of Residential College 3 at the Santa Cruz campus was given today by the buildings and grounds committee of the board of regents of the University of California in their meeting at the First Congregational church educational building.

The approval is conditional until the educational policy committee meets this afternoon regarding the library facility within the college, which was designed by Ernest J. Kump Associates of Palo Alto.

Tentative construction costs are $2,850,000 for 350 students in residence and facilities for 150 commuter students. It will contain a total of 124,484 square feet.

Estimated building costs per square foot of $22.89 is below the costs of residence halls at Berkeley and Riverside campuses.

President Clark Kerr attended the committee session along with Regents Philip Boyd, John Canaday, Theodore Meyer, Mrs. Edward H. Heller, Max Rafferty, William E. Forbes, Norris Nash, Donald McLaughlin, William Coblenz and Laurance Kennedy.

to be used as temporary office facilities.

Working drawings are nearing completion on Cowell college and schematic drawings have been approved for the library, college No. 2 and field house.

The initial emphasis will be on undergraduate liberal education with special stress on the residential nature of the campus and the integration of commuting students.

(See Editorial, Page 19.)

In addition there will be a strong emphasis on social sciences and humanitie s; an undergraduate curriculum to serve student needs rather than reflect faculty research interests; emphasis on tutorials, seminars and independent study; and a strong program in intramural sports.

The first class of undergraduate students, to be admitted in October, 1965, will have a choice of courses in 15 academic fields and will have access to a library of some 75,000 volumes.

Other dignitaries to attend the ceremonies will be regents Philip Boyd, John Canaday, William Coblenz, William Forbes, Mrs. Randolph Hearst, Mrs. Edward Heller, Laurence Kennedy Jr., Donald McLaughlin, Theodore Meyer, Norris Nash, and Regent-elect Thomas Davis.

Chancellors from six other campuses and UC officers will be present.

Local dignitaries will be headed by Senators Fred S. Farr and Donald Grunsky and will include supervisors, city councilmen and city officials, and Cabrillo college President Robert Swenson.

Assisting university personnel in traffic and parking control will be Boy Scouts from the Santa Cruz area. Girl Scouts will distribute programs.

UC regents will hold their regular monthly meeting at 2 p.m.

The day's festivities will be concluded at the second annual UCSC Charter dinner at 7:30 p.m. in The Riverside.

Reservations have been completely sold out at 550 persons, according to Mrs. Robert Hall, dinner chairman.

Affiliates President Forrest Murdock will preside. Radio station KSCO has made arrangements to broadcast the remarks of UC President Kerr and Ex-Regent Hager around 9 p.m.

Invocation will be by the Rev. Harold Blakley of the First Methodist church.

Special guests will be Max Thelen, chairman of the S. H. Cowell foundation trustees, and Photographer Ansel Adams and his wife.

I cast
yes pict
ers jam
a da worl
top abou drow
Jame fathe when the drow
loose had t ing t (AP

Mis