

V.S. S. Cruz You Can Help Make Bicentennial Quilt

SEP 8 1975

More volunteers are needed to complete design squares to be used in the all-city Bicentennial Quilt, according to Diane Folven, recreation supervisor with City Parks and Recreation Department.

The project needs designs relating to historical highlights of people and places in the City of Santa Cruz, including the redwoods, Boardwalk and wharf, Octagon Museum, Woodrow Street trolley, Natural Bridges, UCSC and famous faces of the past.

Those who have signed up must turn in their designs for approval.

All squares should be finished by November 1, so that the quilting can begin.

A get-acquainted tea is planned for Wednesday, September 17, at 3 p.m. in the Parks and Recreation office. All interested participants are invited to share ideas and progress reports.

Diane may be reached for more information on the quilt at 426-5000.

Virginia Mulholland, left, and Tina Dinsmore admire one of the quilt squares which will be included in the all-city Bicentennial Quilt.
