

In with the new

CAPITOLA — The new post office branch here is nearly complete, with an opening expected about mid-September. The 12,000-square-foot facility is located on Bay Avenue at Highway 1, just below the Capitola Inn and adjacent to the Crossroads shopping center. It will be some 2½ times larger than the existing 23-year-old branch. The Spanish-style architecture includes tile roofs and a clock tower. Final inspection on the $1-million-plus branch is expected in two to three weeks, according to Capitola Postmaster Nunnie Whitfield.