THE CELEBRATION TO END ALL CELEBRATIONS. On November 11, 1918 — 65 years ago tomorrow — Santa Cruzans turned out to celebrate the end of World War I. If you remember, that was the War to End All Wars. The photo was taken from right about where the Town Clock is now. The Toscano Hotel (if you can make it out) is about where the Veterans' building stands today on Front Street.

Chocolate Festival at the Civic Saturday (1-5 pm). It's all though Coca Cola had done business with Mr. Tunno in the
