

Sentinel News

Nov. 30, 1960

Turner Memorial Library To Be Dedicated Tuesday

Dedication of a useful memorial for the late Dr. Floyd C. Turner, cancer researcher, of Boulder Creek who died in March, will be held Tuesday at the Boulder Creek library.

A committee of San Lorenzo Valley residents have collected and purchased 120 reference books for the county library system.

According to William Neubauer, one of the committeemen from Boulder Creek, the type of books obtained will help those involved in study and research.

The ceremony will start at 2 p.m. Earl Adams will be in charge.

