MacKenzie Chocolates in Santa Cruz. Waving the parade on this year in patriotic fashion was Stazie Dagnall.

Also in the crowd were four young freedom revelers: Kyla, Jorie, Lauren and Melisse.

The parade is coordinated each year by The Aptos Chamber of Commerce. A long running favorite of event goers, the parade was originally founded by the Aptos Ladies Tuesday Evening Society, a politically and community active group of Aptos women.

The festivities included a traditional pancake breakfast before the parade, and a family day in the park after. □
