WATSONVILLE — Members of Soroptimist International of Watsonville celebrated the club's 88th anniversary on Nov. 3.

Mayor Felipe Hernandez presented club President Katherine Foxworthy with a proclamation citing many contributions the club has made to the community over its 88-year history.

Following the Soroptimist motto of "educate to lead," the Watsonville club has given more than $30,000 annually in scholarships and awards to local women and girls, in addition to supporting other community organizations.

Soroptimist is a global volunteer organization whose mission is to improve the lives of women and girls through programs leading to social and economic empowerment.

Interested community members are invited to visit a luncheon meeting. For information about the club, visit the Soroptimist International of Watsonville Facebook page or website at siwatsonville.org.
