

New Employment Offices

The Santa Cruz office of the state department of employment has moved into a new two-story building at 1725 Seabright avenue. On the top floor is the audit division of the employment department. Larger conference rooms and more floor space are provided the department in the new building than the previous location at 1130 Soquel avenue. Mrs. Myrtle Palmer, acting manager, said the ground floor also contains supply rooms and new furniture.

Lions Club Honors Muriale At Its Thursday Meeting

The Santa Cruz Lions club, joined by the Greater Santa Cruz Chamber of Commerce, is sponsoring the testimonial luncheon to be Thursday noon for Bank of America Manager William Muriale at the Palomar hotel.

Hattie M. Fowler Dies In Home

Hattie May Fowler, 76, a native of Nebraska and a resident of Santa Cruz for the last year, died suddenly last evening in her home at 718 Marnell avenue. She had lived in this community previously for about five years.

She came to California as a little girl, living first in Los Angeles where she attended schools.

JURY TRIAL BEGINS

Jury selection for the trial of 79-year-old Albert McCay, charged with the malicious shooting of two animals, opened today in municipal court. McCay allegedly shot and killed two Russian wolfhounds belonging to a neighbor, Mrs. Louise Graves, last January.

DAIRY and POULTRY

San Francisco, March 4 — Butter: Prices to retailers: First quality 1 lb. print, 66-69½; ¼ lb. print, 66½-70; second quality 1 lb. print, 64-67; ¼ print, 64½-68.
New prices paid producers for live