

10-12-66

Green Acres School Dedication Set

Dedication and open house at the new Green Acres Elementary school in the Live Oak Elementary school district is scheduled tomorrow at 7:30 p.m. The school is at 966 Bostwick lane.

The dedication program will commence with the flag salute, led by Green Acres student body officers, President Kathy Seyle, Vice President Alex Migues, Secretary Sherrill Holster and Parliamentarian Ronald Waltrip. The school chorus, directed by Joseph Orlando will sing the national anthem, followed by the invocation, offered by the Rev. Paul Barton of Twin Lakes Baptist church.

Superintendent Herbert Cartwright then will introduce the Live Oak district board of trustees, Gorman Woody, Robert Osterman, Donald Trapnell, Mrs. Marion Reynolds and Mrs. Alice Wilson.

Board President Woody then will introduce the following: Vince Rake and Vince Trotter, co-chairman of the citizens committee that promoted a 1963 bond issue campaign; Trapnell, chairman of the citizens committee that promoted a 1965 bond issue drive; Jim Whitely, president of the Live Oak Elementary Teachers association; John Richard, president of the Live Oak-Del Mar chapter of the California Secondary Educators association; Tom Black, chairman of the county board of supervisors; Supervisor Robert Burton, in whose Branciforte (First) district Live Oak is situated; Mrs. James Solomon, president of the Live Oak-Green Acres P-TA; general contractor Cecil Brophy, and architect Corwin Booth.

SC Rotary Club To Hear Speech On Program

William H. Spurgeon III, one of the founders of the Special