

Board To Hear Charges Against Local Hippies

Hippies
A charge that Santa Cruz county is supporting a "hippie" population on its welfare rolls will be considered tomorrow by county supervisors.

Alice Wilder, of Ben Lomond, a staunch foe of the hippie-beatniks, raised the question two weeks ago. She claimed a number of disheveled and bearded young persons were cashing checks in San Lorenzo Valley stores that originated from the county or the Economic Opportunity Commission.

County Welfare Director Ray Ansell is expected to explain the county's position on welfare for youths tomorrow.

Supervisors meet at 9 a.m. in chambers on the second floor of the courthouse annex on Front street.

Among other matters to be considered by the board are the following:

WADDELL CREEK — A proposal to establish a fish farm on Waddell Creek is set for consideration at 11:30 a.m. Pacific Marine Enterprises has applied to the State Department of Fish and Game for a permit to establish a fish hatchery there, close part of the coastline to commercial fishing, and net large numbers of steelhead or salmon when they return to the stream to spawn.

Many local sportsmens' organizations are opposing the plan, generally claiming it establishes a dangerous precedent for closing of many streams to fishermen.

COUNTY COUNSEL — Supervisors will consider appointment of a new legal officer to replace County Counsel Bill Card, whose term ends May 23.

HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION

—A recommendation by the county planning department on state highway construction projects for the coming year is expected. The yearly state highway priority list is scheduled for consideration next week.

BIDS — Bid openings on the El Pueblo way culvert for Scotts Valley and for site development on the county governmental center are set for 11 a.m. and 11:10 a.m., respectively.

MINISTERIAL FELLOWSHIP MEETS TOMORROW

The Santa Cruz Ministerial Fellowship will meet tomorrow at 8 a.m. at the Golden West Pancake house. Speaker will be the Rev. Wilbur Korphage, legislative advocate of the California Council on Alcohol problems.
