Grant Awarded To Supply Food To Storm Victims

Food and Nutrition Services has received grants totaling $45,000 for emergency feeding of victims of the Jan. 4 disaster.

The grants include $35,000 from the California Department of Aging, $5,000 from the Hancock Foundation, $3,000 from the Lockheed employees' Bucks of the Month Club and $2,500 from the Packard Foundation.

Food and Nutrition Services has been operating four temporary food programs in the aftermath of the storm.

Included is a daily hot lunch at noon for seniors at Wilder Hall. FNS also has been distributing bags of groceries to some 1,000 victims, 50 hot lunches a day to residents of the Gold Gulch area of Felton and hot lunches to some 25 children a day at the emergency child care center at Felton Community Hall.

Anyone with emergency food needs because of the disaster should contact FNS at 688-8840 or 462-3079.
