

Santa Cruz Again Discovers Nothing Beats A Big Parade

San Juan Bautista's beautiful float (above left) won first prize in the amateur float division. The U.S. Naval School command, Treasure Island, (left) took first spot in the military band division of yesterday's Miss California parade.

Miss Livermore (above) is shown being helped out of her official pageant car by two lucky marines at the civic auditorium. The San Jose Junior Marines (left) won first place in the junior boys drill team division. The famed Watsonville band (lower left), which has won many honors down the years, provided one of the many thrills of yesterday's parade. Miss Stockton (below) added a nautical touch to the gala event as she waved to the large crowd on Pacific avenue from a luxurious yacht. Cathy Samuelson represents the San Joaquin city in this year's pageant.

