New Aptos Post Office Dedicated

The new Aptos post office was dedicated in outdoor ceremonies yesterday afternoon and was followed by a post office open house and tours through the facility. In the photo, Aptos Postmaster Charles Spencer is at rostrum, beginning the ceremonies. James F. Lynch, regional controller for the San Francisco post office district, was main speaker. At left is the Cabrillo college pep band which gave a pre-dedication concert and participated in the ceremonies. At right are members of American Legion Monterey Bay Post 778 who helped with the raising of the official post office flag which once flew over the national capitol.
