

Old Homes Tour Saturday

FINAL PLANS for the Heritage Days tour-visit to Santa Cruz Art league gallery are being made by, from left, Mrs. Norman Sullivan and Mrs. Clara Haynes, members of the Art league, and Mrs. Albert Everly Jr., president of Santa Cruz Native Daughters, tour sponsors. Art exhibit will feature paintings of old Santa Cruz homes.

Art and tea will be combined during the Heritage Days Old Homes tour, when tour-goers gather at the Santa Cruz Art league gallery for a view of members' work plus a "friendly cup of tea."

The tour is set for Saturday and is sponsored by Santa Cruz parlor, Native Daughters of the Golden West. Tickets are $1.50 and are available at Bowman-Forgey, Santa Cruz Art league gallery and from Mrs. Bessie Gomes at 423-4657.

The tour will be conducted in chartered buses and also will include visits to the Chuck Abbott home at 504 Lincoln street, the home of Mrs. Irma L. LaHerran at 1302 West Cliff drive, "Baldwin House" at 445 Locust street and Santa Cruz Museum. Buses will leave the Seaside company parking lot at 11:30 a.m. Saturday. Tickets will be sold up to the time the buses leave.

Paintings to be exhibited at the Art league gallery, 526

Broadway, will include views of old Santa Cruz homes.

Tour-goers may drive their own cars if they wish, it has been announced.
