

MORE LARGE PRINT BOOKS — The Santa Cruz Main Library will have more large print books thanks to the annual $100 donation made by the Santa Cruz Eagles Auxiliary through donations made to the national organization's Golden Eagle Fund which aids seniors. Charles Atkins, city and county librarian, shows Lucy Swank, left, and President Mickey Bone of the auxiliary some of the books now available in the library.

9/4/81