

People and Places

Headed For Y Antiques Show

It's Y Antiques show time again and what better way to get off to a good start than to take a ride with Lysle Muth in his 1910 Chalmers. All set for a spin around the block are Mrs. Charles Smiley, left, and Mrs. Wayne Morris, chairmen for the show-sale which is set for August 12 through 15 at civic auditorium. Muth, a member of the Horseless Carriage Club of America, has had his brass-trimmed Chalmers since 1959, restoring it himself. It has gas headlights and coal oil sidelights. Setting for the picture is the Victorian home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Edward Perkins, 250 Ocean View avenue. Tickets for the 17th annual Antiques show and sale now are available at the YWCA.