

THE START OF SUMMER

Slate of Saturday events kick off holiday weekend

Events

MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND got off to a bustling start Saturday with events countywide. At right, members of the Santa Cruz County Library System's Precision Book Cart Drill Team struts their stuff at the Felton Remembers Parade Saturday morning. Meanwhile, parade-watchers Sabrina Skwarek and Jimmy Kropp display decidedly different reactions to a contingent of motorcyclists passing their street-level vantage point.

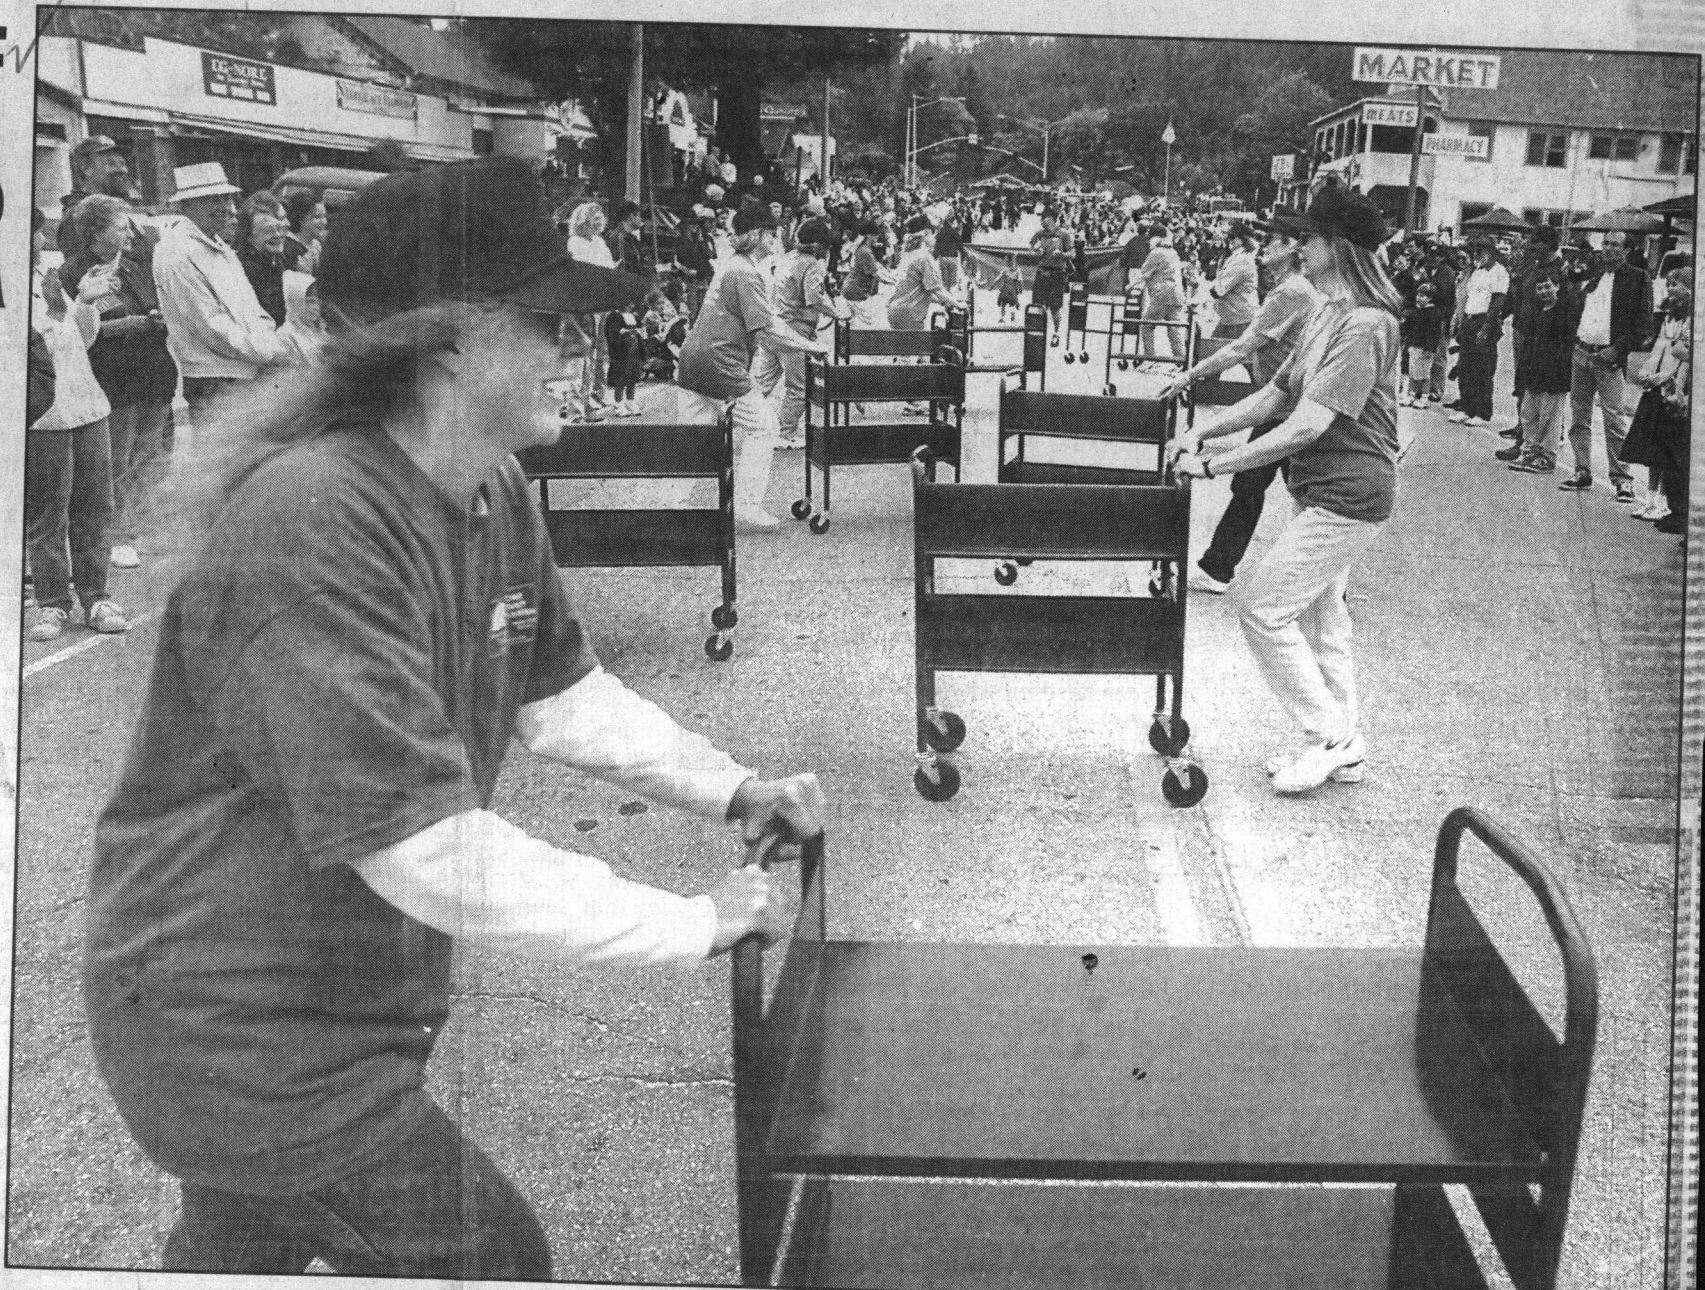

Elsewhere in the county, J.P. McClellan of Oxnard, lower right, works a small wave in an early heat at the 15th annual Santa Cruz Longboard Club Invitational Saturday morning at Steamer Lane in Santa Cruz.

The event, sponsored by Hotline Wetsuits, continues today with raffle tickets available for 10 new longboards. The proceeds benefit the Surfrider Foundation, Santa Cruz Surfing Museum and Santa Cruz Junior Lifeguards. The heats start today at 7 a.m.

Also on the Saturday docket — the Watsonville Fly-In and Air Show, which continues from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. today at Watsonville Airport. Admission is $8 for adults, and $4 for seniors and children age 6-12. call 728-6075 for more information.
