

Wharf tram

Capitola Wharf employees use an electric tram to shuttle supplies and boats back and forth on the 2,000-foot-long wharf. Heavy trucks and automobiles are generally banned from the wharf because of a weight limit on the century-old structure.