

3/30/65—
Sewer Bond Sale Completed

City officials affix the necessary signatures and seals to $4,125,000 in sewer bonds as the last step in completing sales of the bonds at the San Francisco head office of Bank of America. A. J. Miller, city clerk and treasurer, and Ron Beach, assistant finance director, go over the procedures with Hank Ehlen, the bank's assistant vice president in charge of securities. Bank of America is paying agent and purchaser of the bonds, approved by voters in June, 1964.
