Party for Summer Readers

The Lazy SC Summer Reading Club sponsored by the Santa Cruz Public Library and its Branches winds up Wednesday, April 12, at 9 p.m., and the young cowboys and cowgirls who have read five books are invited to attend a party August 18 at Santa Cruz Civic Auditorium.

The reading club program was developed in Santa Cruz by former Children's Librarian Theima Anderson and through the years thousands of children have discovered the library's doorway to adventure.

This year Children's Librarian Mary Franklin chose a cowboy theme, a decided hit with the young readers.

She expects more than 600 children to attend the party to be at 2 p.m. August 18. Magician Jimmy Manchester will head the entertainment for the afternoon and a film, "Stampede Fever," will be shown.

Reading certificates and library reading club pins will be awarded children who have read 15 or more books during the period from June 12 to August 12. For further information contact your neighborhood library or the Main Library.

When a child in the library summer reading program completes a book, a cowboy hat goes up on the Lazy SC bunkhouse. Here Donna Burklo, daughter of the Don Burklos of Soquel, hangs her 15th hat.

Joseph DeHart, to be a first grader this fall at Westlake, is too young to join the Lazy SC Summer Reading Club but he's intrigued by cowboy theme anyhow. He's the son the Thad DeHarts.
