

CUPOLA GALLERY

By Marian Goodman
Sorrento Oaks Park

A landmark, rather hidden and inaccessible but still a landmark, is the grey-green Cupola Art Gallery at 1130 E. Cliff Drive.

We may drive by it often, even think we must stop there some time, and forget it the next minute.

A member of the ill-fated Donner Party may have gazed out to sea from the porch of this house, for the builder was Frazier Lewis, son of Patty Reed of those tragic pioneers of 1846.

If you recall that painful story you will find eight-year-old Patty came out of it a little heroine, by keeping up their hope. All members had to throw away the slightest extra weight so they could trudge through the snow more easily. But when those who survived were safe, Patty revealed that she had brought

Continued on page 2