

2/14/82 Sentinel

SCOPE Award

The recently-restored Swanton House on the corner of Mission and Locust streets received the monthly award from the Santa Cruz Organization for Progress and Euthenics (SCOPE). The award is given for Victorian restoration and community improvement. Swanton House, restored by Barbara Parrish of J.R. Parrish Inc., was built for Albion Paris Swanton in 1889. The house was renovated for use as professional offices.

