Elks Break Ground For New Lodge

This big "cat" will soon be digging into the hill side near Jewell street, across from the IOOF cemetery for the new $550,000 Santa Cruz Elks lodge

824. Shown here at the ground breaking ceremonies this morning are, from left (on tractor) Ernie Dillon, Bates Elliott, Ray Scott and Ray Macaulay; on the ground, from left, Don May, Charles Brunjes, Barney Antic and Don Mungai. Work is expected to start on the actual building in August.
