

Capitola Wharf Work Progressing

Work is progressing on the all-new buildings being constructed on the renovated Capitola Wharf. To total approximately 2,680 square feet and cost some $130,000, the buildings will include a combination bait and tackle shop, maintenance facility and snack shop. They are expected to be completed in mid to late April. The wharf, in the meantime, is open to the public daily.