

Valley residents keen on tax issue

BOULDER CREEK — If there's some property tax rebate money out there, San Lorenzo Valley property owners want some of it.

The property owners are getting ready to jump on a bandwagon to claim property tax refunds that may be available from the 1978-79 tax year.

The refunds will become available if a San Mateo Superior Court decision is upheld by higher courts.

The San Mateo County decision stated that property owners are entitled to a refund of 6 percent of property taxes they paid because the state erred in figuring how taxes should be assessed after Proposition 13 was passed.

Ever since the San Mateo decision, property owners throughout the state have filed claims for refunds.

On Thursday, San Lorenzo Valley residents Ann and Charles Wise will explain the tax-rebate situation to the San Lorenzo Valley Property Owners Association at a meeting at Boulder Creek Fire Hall. The meeting begins at 6:30 p.m.
