

Scotts Valley Art & Wine Festival

Events
 Relax in the Park with Art, Wine, Food, & Live Music August 2012

Scotts Valley is gearing up for the 13th Annual Scotts Valley Art & Wine Festival. It's the place for all Santa Cruz County residents to be the second week of August. This two day event will be held from 10 am to 6 pm on Saturday and Sunday, August 11 and 12, in beautiful SkyPark in Scotts Valley - take the Mt Hermon Exit off Highway 17

August 11 & 12
 10 am - 6 pm

and follow the signs to 361 Kings Village Road.

Sponsored by the Scotts Valley Chamber of Commerce and the Scotts Valley Arts Commission, this premier event is held in a beautiful open park setting, so the mood is comfortable and relaxed as you wander past more than 100 artists' booths - many of which are local artists - offering a variety of fine art styles and techniques.

You'll find magnificent jewelers, breath taking photography, creative art in oil and acrylic, wood creations, ceramic, metal and glass wonders, fabric art, and so much more! Don't miss the opportunity to lose yourself in Fine Art while strolling through Skypark sipping award-winning wines.

The Scotts Valley Art & Wine Festival showcases many of the foremost wineries from the Santa Cruz Mountains and surrounding area, so there are plenty of "tastings" to go around. It's a great way to experience the wines of the Santa Cruz Mountains without having to drive from winery to winery - just a casual walk through the park for two days.

To celebrate our 13th year of the Festival, 13 Wineries will be pouring their excellent wines this year including: Bargetto Winery, Bruzzone Family Vineyards, Chaucer's Cellars, Dancing Creek, Hallcrest Vineyards, Heart O' the Mountain, Odonata Wines, Poetic Cellars, Santa Cruz Mountain Vineyard, and - joining us for the first time - 37th Parallel Winery, Mica Cellars, MJA Vineyards, and Wargin Wines. You'll want to taste them all, so plan on coming to the Festival both Saturday and Sunday.

Event" year after year, the Scotts Valley Art & Wine Festival offers a fantastic food court with a variety of delicious selections. Of course, for our beer connoisseurs, the Festival also offers a good beer selection for your pleasure. So, grab some food and drink and relax on the hay bales, at picnic tables, bring your own blanket, or sit under the shade tent while enjoying the musical entertainment from the nearby stage. This year the featured bands will be Aftershock, Sparkletones, Adonis DNA, Stella By Barlight, Incendio and Joint Chiefs Band. There's sure to be a band that will become your favorite.

It's a Great Day in Skypark at the Scotts Valley Art & Wine Festival, August 11 and 12. If you would like to join the Volunteer Team, applications are still being accepted.
