

Civil Service

City Employees Honored For Service

Santa Cruz Fire Chief Theodore G. McEwen receives a pin recognizing his 30 years of service to the community from City Manager David Koester, during last night's annual Civil Service commission awards banquet. McEwen was the only employee honored for a full 30 years of city employment last night, although five were lauded upon their retirement and four received 25-year pins.

Forty-six individuals were honored last night for their years of service to the city of Santa Cruz, during the ninth annual Civil Service commission awards dinner.

Welcoming those in attendance at a cocktail hour and dinner at the Riverside were Mayor Eugene Fleming, City Manager David Koester, Denver Groff, chairman of the Civil Service commission, and Samuel J. Gaub, president of the city employees association. Gerald D. Minford, assistant to the city manager, served as master of ceremonies.

Employees from nine city departments were honored, for service ranging from a minimum of five years to a maximum of 30 years or retirement.

Service award pins were presented to the following, by department and years of service:

Finance and Records: Barbara

Wetzel, 10 years; Angele Melton, 25.

Fire: David M. Alst, Charles A. Schneider and William R. Schuette, 10; William Osterberg, 15; Theodore G. McEwen, 30; Joseph Bird, retirement.

Library: Alverda Orlando, 5; Phyllis Wademan, 15; Geraldine G. Work, 25; Virginia Hull and Pauline Von Hoesten, retirement.

Parks and Recreation: Charles A. Tucker, 10; William Burnley, retirement.

Government Buildings: J. Newell Maddock and George T. Roselius, 5.

Wharf: Raymond Howard Bethel, 20.

Police: Jack W. Cross, 5; Dennis A. Finnegan and Rhonda L. Smith, 10; Charles R. Derby, William J. Pinard and McKnight W. Reed, 20; Raymond D. Carpenter, 25, and Anthony Valine, retirement.

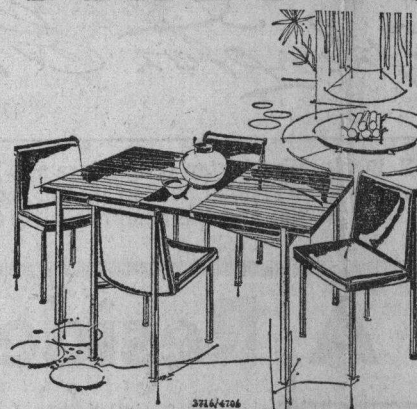

Shown here are four of five Santa Cruz city employees honored last night with retirement pins presented during the annual Civil Service awards dinner. From left are Joseph Bird, fire department, Virginia Hull, library, William Burnley, parks and recreation, and Anthony Valine, police. Not pictured is Pauline Van Hoesten, library.

Public Works: Stanley C. Mendoza and Lester L. Rate, 5; Edward F. Geyer, Maurice Kirkendall, Jack C. Legner and Lowell L. Lewis, 10; T. Fenton Ham, Joe Lovato and Louis J. Wright, 15; Luigi Davighi and Milton Mylar, 20, and Joseph Rodriguez, 25.

Water: G. "Bill" DiMarzio, Frank B. Hawkins, Earl R. Lighthill, Angelo Mungai and Murrel O. Short, 5; Ann Perry, 10; Harold G. Brown and Weston L. Webber, 20.

CLEARANCE DAFFY DON'S D

PENTHO

TABLE 3716: Rectangular tension Table. Size 35" Extends 60" with one bl Rosewood grain Mical Also in Espresso Wal Micalite top. Self-leveling CHAIR 4706: Low, t back chair on chrom frame has shaped seat. El Paso vinyl (as shown