action "positive impact of the visitor- vey will be a basic restructuring supplied power to Expo 70, the ingest- oriented industry," and educat- of the bureau to best implessed in local residents what Santa ment these programs."

13 in Osaka. Santa Seid-

cia

SO

fer Hi

Cu

Td

m da

He

Bl sa gy als of of rel

ca str

pro

edi ty pro

On edu

to

the

cat

wh Col

Bo

me

... cor eva edu ate one

nig

son who sed

N

F

che

Bla

cus are

A sior tion on talk

CI

Cı 0

A whi

type ope

to tori

T

cra

den

citi day

It

Cru

Dep

invi

of ani

orth County

Historic Bonny Doon Home Sold By Staffler Estate

By MEL BAUGHMAN resented by Eric Schwarz of Schwarzbach Associ One of Santa Cruz County's Realtors, of Ben Lomond. outstanding rural estates most been sold. Potter and Daniel Staffler an-nounced the sale of their fami-ly's Bonny Doon hacienda with 60 acres to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hamburg of New York and Mr. and Mrs. William Harmon Jr. and Mrs.

of Los Angeles. Lower photo shows the spa-cious living room of the five-bedroom home that was built in 1939 for the Staffler brothers' parents, the late Mr. and Mrs.

Daniel Martin Staffler. Upper photo reveals a portion of the patio which features a were members of pioneer Santa built-in barbecue.

Price of the property was set about $250,000.

resented by Eric Schwarzbach lumber family in the Santa Cruz of Schwarzbach Associates, area.

Penniman Title Inc., 1537 Pacific Title of the Staffler brothers' mother, Wilma Halsted Staffler in 1965, the residence has been used for occasional entertaining Both Mr. and Mrs. Staffler

Mrs. Staffler, who was a long-

Associates, area. mond. Mr. Staffler, who died in 1961, Company, entered business with the firm Ave., also of Wessendorf and Staffler in participated in the transaction.

Purchasers of the home and the auto business.

Purchasers of the home and the according to a spokesman at the Schwarzbach firm. The balance of the land was purchased by the Harmons.

In auto business.

Some 260 acres of property in the Bonny Doon area was sold by the Staffler brothers in 1966 to Dr. Clark Kerr, Dr. Dean E. McHenry, Dr. Kenneth In the years since the death Thimann, and other persons in education.

for (Advertisem

The Most Exciting Headac