

Lockheed gets permit for antenna building

SANTA CRUZ — A $30,956 building to support a dish antenna at the Lockheed facility in Santa Cruz was among $293,782 in new construction and remodelings receiving county building permits from Dec. 20 to 23.

County offices were closed Dec. 24 for the Christmas holiday.

Single family dwellings receiving building permits were as follows: $88,794, 1485 Laurel Glen Road, by Herbert Zechman; and $72,403, 3605 Garden St., by Edgar McConnel.

Also receiving a permit was a $41,966 room addition at 15776 Rudy Road in Scotts Valley by Robin and Georgia Hilgeman.

Santa Cruz 1/14/83

A $650,000 remodeling of Dominican Hospital's kitchen facilities is among $1.3 million in new construction and remodelings issued county building permits from Dec. 27 to 30.

County offices were closed Dec. 31 for the New Year's Single family dwellings receiving permits were as follows: $64,632, 15435 Skyline Blvd. in the summit area, by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whalen; $60,749, 122 Glen Drive in Aptos, by Laurie Weider; $81,323, 4009 Freedom Blvd. in Aptos, by Charles and Marilyn Cooper; $156,422, .31 Via Gaviota in Seascapes, by James Jung; and $82,498, 769 Eureka Canyon Road in Watsonville, by Neil Mulford.

Room additions valued at $20,000 or more receiving permits were as follows: $33,823, 11268 Berkeley Way, by Donelyn Culver; $91,371, 626 Beach Drive in Aptos, by Elizabeth Means; and $30,795, 815 Middleton Drive in Boulder Creek by Mr. and Mrs. Williams.