To Open Course In Accounting Tomorrow Night

The San Jose State college extension course, Accounting B, with Donald Miner, business instructor, as teacher, will begin tomorrow at 7 p.m. in room 3, homemaking building of the Santa Cruz high school, according to Ed Warren, night school principal.

The course is the second quarter's work of a year's course in accounting started last year. It is designed for bookkeepers and accounting executives of local business firms.

Three units of college credit will be gained upon completion of the 10 weekly sessions of three hours each. Regular state college extension fees will be charged and may be paid directly to the instructor.

Topics included for study this quarter are: Taxes based upon payroll, periodic summary, controlling accounts, special journals and records, the voucher system, partner-
