

Named Acting City Manager

Pete Tedesco, 29, was named last night as acting city manager to replace his boss, City Manager Robert Klein when the latter leaves to become the chief administrative officer of Fresno — August 1. Tedesco currently is the city's personnel director and administrative assistant.

Council Names Tedesco Acting City Manager

Assistant City Manager Pete Tedesco last night was appointed acting city manager with a starting date of August 1 and a salary of $850 per month.

Tedesco will replace City Manager Robert Klein who will take over as chief administrative officer of Fresno August 1. Tedesco's appointment by the city council will be in effect until the council can go through the lengthy process of selecting a new, permanent city manager.

The council also temporarily promoted Mrs. Kay Menzemer to assistant personnel director at $427 per month to take over Tedesco's duties in that field.

The 29-year-old Tedesco left a job as field representative for the League of California Cities in 1955 to take over as personnel director and administrative assistant (popularly known as assistant city manager) here.

Tedesco's background includes a bachelor's degree in public administration from the University of California and a year's graduate work, also in public administration, at the UC campus in Berkeley.

He and his wife, Sylvia, have two sons, John, 3, and Gregory, 2.

Mrs. Menzemer began work with the city six years ago as a secretary in the water department. For the last three years she has been administrative secretary in the city manager's office.

Mrs. Menzemer and her husband, Lewis, who is executive director of Goodwill Industries for the Monterey Bay region, have three daughters, Mrs. Jean Scott, Karen, 17, and Janet, 10.

Ex-Head Of SEC Is Ousted From Witness Stand

Washington (AP).—The Goldfine-Adams investigation exploded into an angry row today climaxed by dismissal of a former securities and exchange commission head from the witness stand.

J. Sinclair Armstrong, SEC chairman in 1955-57 and now an assistant secretary of the navy, tangled from the outset with Chairman Oren Harris (D-Ark) of the house subcommittee digging into SEC handling of cases involving Bernard Goldfine, a Boston industrialist.

The congress members want to know whether SEC pulled its punches and whether it was influenced by Sherman Adams, top aide to President Eisenhower and a close friend of Goldfine.

"I've been outraged" at allegations that SEC people "could possibly be influenced by anybody," Armstrong hotly told the congressmen.

Harris asked the former SEC chief to step aside and not resume the witness stand until Harris returned from another committee meeting the congressman was about to attend. He said he had some questions to ask personally.

Frank G. Wilson, E Cruz Real Estate M

Council Accepts