

The Red Cross Fete of 1918 in Felton

Dr. Farmer was there

So was Florence Fetherston
