

Cabrillo College student is Miss SC County

REGISTER-PAJARONIAN STAFF REPORT

WATSONVILLE — Soquel resident Darci Robertson took the cake Sunday afternoon as she accepted her crown and a $3,500 scholarship as Miss Santa Cruz County 2000 at the Henry J. Mello Center.

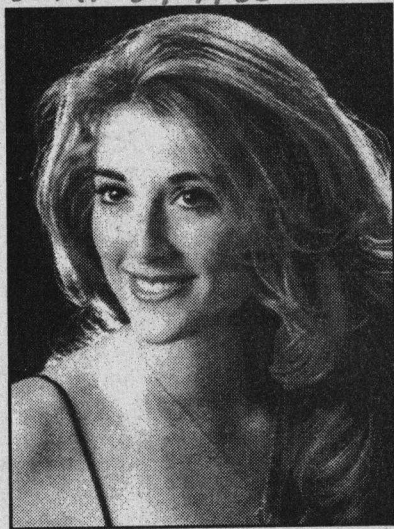

A Monte Vista Christian School graduate and current Cabrillo College student, Robertson, 18, performed an opera vocal before the judging panel and audience. Robertson stated that her future goals include attending Stanford Law School before joining the FBI as a forensic investigator and then serving as a Supreme Court Justice.

Taking home a $1,000 scholarship, first-runner up Jasmine Silva, 21, also won a $500 scholarship from the Valley Heights Senior Community/ Valley Convalescent Hospital in memory of Kelly Chilcote, for her work with the sick or elderly.

Second-runner up Janie Oliver walked away with an $800 scholarship and shared honors as a scholarship recipient from the Aptos Lion Club with fourth-runner up Hayley Malmin, 18. Each won a $250 scholarship in memory of Dick Brandenburg for their involvement with community service.

Third place went to Stephanie Huber, 20, who won a $700 scholarship and 17-year-old Lacy Tomasello won the Fundraising Achievement Award for most fundraising done to support the scholarship program.

Robertson