SANTA CRUZ — Branciforte Elementary students Travis Huntsman and Alyssa Tsukushi present librarian Janis Schechter with a copy of "For All to See," a poetry book written and illustrated by students in the school's gifted and talented program. The book will be available to check out from the young people's room at the main library and from the Branciforte branch. Branciforte School is selling copies of the book and a companion color calendar, "Within my Reach," as a fund-raiser. For more information, call 429-3898.
