

Bus-C

Capitola Mall Restaurant Opens

Carl's Jr. Restaurant in the Capitola Mall was officially opened Thursday with a ribbon-cutting ceremony. Doing the honors with the scissors was Melody Palmer, center, while Capitola city officials and Carl's executives watched. From left to right, they are Hill

Nelson, Capitola councilman; Paul Mitchell, area supervisor for Carl's; Palmer, Max Kludt, Capitola city manager; and Rick Furguson, manager of the now-open restaurant. The Capitola restaurant is one of more than 200 such eating places in California.