Fiesta Organizers Need Persons To Demonstrate Pioneer Skills

The Adobe Coalition, organizers of the Mission Day Fiesta, are offering a "reward" to craftspeople who can demonstrate pioneer skills at the Fiesta Oct. 2 at the park in front of Holy Cross Church.

Those who can demonstrate how to make candles, wine, adobe or quilts need pay no entry fee, and may sell their wares at the festival. Also needed are coopers, blacksmiths, spinners, weavers and any other old-time craftspeople.

Organizers are also willing to teach non-profit groups how to play Ohlone Indian gambling games to raise funds at a booth.

This year's fiesta and parade are to commemorate the founding of Santa Cruz, and to help restore the Neary-Rodriguez Adobe.

A parade will precede the fiesta, and will include costumed ethnic participants, early horse-drawn vehicles, marching bands and a stagecoach.

In addition to booths and demonstrations, the fiesta will have live entertainment, folk dancing, music and food.

For further information, call Charlotte at 426-6432, or pick up entry forms at the City Planning Office.
