

S J mercury
6-14-72

Hall of Records
5

EIGHT-SIDED—Santa Cruz County's octagon-shaped Hall of Records, built in 1882, will be "rededicated" Saturday as a county historical museum. Watsonville band will play at the ceremony, which starts at 1:30 p.m. The old building had been slated for demolition, but local history buffs led a successful campaign to preserve the building because of its unique architectural design.