

While the state is spending millions of dollars to improve the Soquel Drive freeway interchange (shown above), traffic on Live Oak's local streets continues to worsen. The county says it has no money to make improvements and has proposed several schemes to raise more money.

Sam Vestal