

UCSC Library Official Named

10-28-64
Carl Wensrich has been named head of the reader services division of the University of California at Santa Cruz library. Wensrich is former head of professional services in the technical library at the UC Lawrence radiation laboratory, Livermore.

The post includes reference and circulation duties to aid faculty and students in using library books, periodicals, documents and microfilm. Wensrich received his liberal arts and library science degrees at UC Berkeley.

Wensrich and his wife Jeanne, live at 2885 Capitola road. They have two children, Martin, 15, and Susanne, 13.

A teen-age girl needs only 2,400 to 2,600 calories a day; teen-age boys need 3,100 to 3,600 calories daily.
