

March against AIDS

About 50 people attended an AIDS rally and march yesterday at the Plaza in downtown Watsonville. Sponsored by local health clinic Salud Para La Gente, the event featured AIDS education and a march to St.

FEB 15 1993

Kurt Ellison

Patrick's Church in memory of those who have died or are infected by the virus. Humberto Gastellum carries a large wooden cross to lead the small group of marchers who walked from the Plaza to the church.