Santa Cruz County supervisors have appointed Board Chairman Ray Belgard to the Local Agency Formation Commission.

The selection was one of a long list of appointments to boards and commissions for supervisors. The appointments were proposed by Belgard and routinely approved by the board yesterday.

Belgard will hold one of five seats on LAFCO, an inter-agency group that oversees annexations and incorporations. He replaces Robley Levy, who lost her bid for a fourth term as supervisor in November.

There are two supervisors on LAFCO; Gary Patton will continue to hold the other spot.

Supervisors will serve on the boards of these organizations:

● Jan Beautz, Live Oak area: Area Agency on Aging Advisory Council; Library Oversight Committee, LAFCO alternate; liaison to Mobile Home Commission; county Criminal Justice Council; County Sanitation District; Santa Cruz-Hayward Housing Finance Authority; Santa Cruz Metropolitan Transit District.

● Walt Symons, Midcounty: alternate to state Criminal Justice Council, Region M; Conference and Visitors Council; Cultural Council; Drug and Alcohol Master Plan Advisory Committee; Inter-agency Children's Services Coordination Council; Library Oversight

Committee; Monterey Bay Air Pollution Control District; county Mental Health Advisory Board; county Sanitation District.

● Gary Patton, Santa Cruz area: Area Agency on Aging Advisory Council; Association of Monterey Bay Area Governments; state Outer Continental Shelf Policy Advisory Committee; Community Action Board; Environmental Health Appeals Commission; Hazardous Materials Appeals Commission; Integrated Waste Management Local

Task Force; LAFCO; Long Range Facilities Master Plan Project Team, county Transportation Commission, Senate Bill 959 Outer Continental Shelf Board of Control.

● Ray Belgard, Watsonville area: Association of Monterey Bay Area Governments; state Council on Criminal Justice, Region M Board; LAFCO; Resource Conservation and Development Sponsors; Santa Cruz-Hayward Housing Finance Agency; county Criminal Justice Council; county Transportation Commission, representing private operators.

● Fred Keeley, Scotts Valley-San Lorenzo Valley: Association of Monterey Bay Governments Joint Powers Authority; alternate to Association of Monterey Bay Governments board; state County Supervisors Association; Integrated Waste Management Local Task Force; Monterey Bay Air Pollution Control District; county Transportation Commission; Metropolitan Transit District.
