

Twin Lakes Church Plans $175,000 Expansion

The congregation of the Twin Lakes Baptist church last week voted to proceed at once with a building and expansion program costing $175,000. The church has multiplied its congregation about seven times in the last 10 years. The new building will include an enlarged sanctuary, Sunday school rooms, offices and a complete redecoration program. Construction is expected to start in the early spring on the expansion project, a drawing of which is pictured above. Dr. Roy Kraft is the pastor of the church.
